

Commander Randy Allen

Commander Randy Allen began his career as a police officer with the Long Beach Police Department in 1990. His assignments have included working as a Patrol Officer, Field Training Officer, Motorcycle Officer, Burglary Detective, DARE Officer, Academy Instructor, Academy Sergeant, Academy Lieutenant, Patrol Watch Commander, and Commander of the Communications & Training Division. He is currently assigned to the Port Police Division, which provides law enforcement services on both land and water in the Port of Long Beach.

Commander Allen holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from California State University, Long Beach. He is a graduate of University of Southern California Delinquency Control Institute, the Sherman Block Supervisory Leadership Institute, F.B.I. National Academy, and the City of Long Beach's Leadership Program.

Commander Allen serves as a voting Board Member for the California Police Officers' Association. He is the Immediate Past President of the Long Beach Police Command Officers' Association and a member of the F.B.I. National Academy Associates. He and his wife Cindy, a former L.B.P.D. officer, have two grown children.